

New to Emmanuel?

If you are new to Emmanuel we are really pleased to have you with us.

Emmanuel Bristol is a family of churches who are working together to make disciples and plant churches across the city of Bristol.

We are part of the Church of England, but welcome people from any denomination or background.

If you are totally new to church and have all kinds of questions, you won't be alone. We aim to be churches where people can ask their questions and share their doubts.

Emmanuel Bishopston – 11.15am, BS7 8NA
Emmanuel City Centre – 4.30 and 6.30pm, BS1 2NN
Emmanuel Westbury – 4.00pm, BS9 3AN

Welcome Supper

If you are new to Emmanuel and wondering whether to settle with us, we would love you to come along to our next welcome supper. It is a great chance to meet some of the members of the church family and ask your questions to our pastor, Mike Cain. For details of the next one email mike@emmanuelbristol.org.uk.

Young People at Emmanuel

Crèche: age 0-2s

Mini Junior Church: age 3-4s

Younger and Older Junior Church: school yrs R-3 & 4-6

Source: Sundays - school years 7-9

One80: Sundays - school years 10-13 meet with everyone else in the main hall and then head off to their own meeting, with regular socials in the week.

Tea Time

We love spending time with one another, so everyone is invited to stay on for tea from 5:15pm. Our aim is to ensure that the children go home well fed, but there is always plenty of cake for the adults too.

Every Sunday: Prayer Meeting 3:30pm

Jesus says, "Apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). That's why we must pray. Come and join the elders in praying for our time together on a Sunday. Everyone welcome. Venue: "Quiet Room" at the top of the stairs in the foyer.
